

BROADWAY STARS FOR KLEINE PLAY

Irene Fenwick, Cyril Keightley and Malcolm Duncan Signed for "The Spendthrift."

Announcement is made by George Kleine of the engagement of three famous Broadway stars for his film version of Porter Emerson Browne's celebrated drama, "The Spendthrift," work on which has already been commenced in the Kleine New York studios. The three stars are Irene Fenwick, Cyril Keightley and Malcolm Duncan, who constitute one of the most remarkable casts ever seen in motion pictures. Miss Irene Fenwick is the well known star of "The Song of Songs" now playing at the Ellinger theater. Cyril Keightley was selected by George Kleine for his splendid work in the same production. He will play Richard Ward to Miss Fenwick's Francis Ward, in "The Spendthrift." Malcolm Duncan, for the last two years has been handling the leading roles under Harrison Grey Fiske's management and is making his debut as a photoplayer in the Kleine film.

It is noteworthy that this is Mr. Kleine's first American made drama following those four delightful comedies, "Officer 666," "Stop Thief," "Who's Who in Society" and "The Commuters."

STARS

Of Broadway Productions to Be Seen in Kalem Three-Reel Features.

According to a Kalem announcement, prominent Broadway stars are to be featured in forthcoming three act productions which will be known as "Broadway Favorites" features.

The first of the Broadway stars to be seen in these dramas will be Miss Katherine La Salle, one of the most popular young ladies in the theatrical world. A Chicagoan, Miss La Salle first appeared at the Ziegfeld theater of that city. Her most recent work was with Edmund Breese, in "The Master Mind" and opposite John Mason, in "Big Jim Garity." Miss La Salle succeeded Florence Reed in the leading role of "The Yellow Ticket."

The Kalem "Broadway Favorites" feature selected as a vehicle for Miss La Salle is Lawrence Marston's famous play, "An Innocent Sinister." The role of Hinda, the girl of the mountains, is one that is admirably suited for this dainty star. The release date will be announced shortly.

STAR JOINS LUBIN.

One more star has been added to the forces of the western Lubin company at Los Angeles, this time in the person of Loretta Blake, who for several seasons toured the country in various successful roles on the legitimate stage.

Well Known Screen Star

LORETTA BLAKE
DAINTY MUTUAL INGENUE
One of the captivating ingenues of the Belland and Majestic Hollywood studios is dainty Loretta Blake. For the past fourteen months she has been creating parts in Mutual photo plays and has made a specialty of the innocent, sympathetic slaver type of part. In such characters her best work was rendered in "The Sea Bird," "Farm Folks," "The Broken Lullaby," "His Last Deal." The same applies to the society girl in "The Double Crossing of Slim," the sympathetic sister in "The Black Sheep" and a score of others. For the present she is enacting a symbolic character—that of Happiness—in a four reel psychological Belland feature in which Robert Edson, the speaking stage favorite, is being featured.

TAKES THRILLING RIDE ON ENGINE

SCENE FROM "THE GIRL ENGINEER"

The latest released installment of the Kalem company's famous serial photoplay, "The Hazards of Helen," is called "The Girl Engineer." The original star, Helen Holmes, takes the leading part, as the telegraph operator at Lono Point.

Knowing that Walker's mine produces richer ore, Williams endeavors to hold up his rival's shipment. Helen dons overalls, rushes through a crowd of men attacking the engineer of a freight train, climbs into the cab of the locomotive and pulls the throttle wide open. Her thrilling ride at sixty miles an hour is one of the most exciting incidents ever filmed.

ranged our plans accordingly.

"It is impossible to put too much emphasis on the type of productions we intend to make. Neither time nor money will be spared in making each feature a masterpiece in every sense of the word and it will be possible for the exhibitor to obtain these at moderate prices. Offices have been opened in New York, Chicago, Kansas City, Salt Lake City, Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Dallas, Atlanta, Boston, Philadelphia, Columbus and other cities, and we shall be in direct touch with the exhibitors."

"The new organization, which will be known as the 'V.L.S.E.' will have the entire direction of the exploiting of the features and will be in close touch with exhibitors in every section of the country. The releasing of features will begin immediately."

"As an indication of what the public may expect in the way of features I might mention some we have completed in our own studios which will be released under the new arrangement and direct to the exhibitor. They include 'Eagle's Nest,' by Edwin Arden, in which Arden and Romaine Fielding are featured; 'The Sporting Duchess,' Cecil Raleigh's comedy with Rose Coghlan and Ethel Clayton and supported by George Soule Spencer; 'The Valley of Lost Hope,' a spectacular drama by Shannon Fire, in which Romaine Fielding is featured; 'The District Attorney,' Charles Klein and Harrison Cooper. Fiske's well known drama with George Soule Spencer and Dorothy Bernard; 'The College Widow,' George Ade's sparkling comedy, featuring Ethel Clayton and George Soule Spencer; 'The Evangelist,' Sir Henry Arthur Jones' powerful drama, in which Gladys Hanson is starred, supported by George Soule Spencer and 'The Climbers,' by Clyde Fitch, in which Gladys Hanson is featured and supported by an all-star cast of Lubin players."

"Among the other big productions now in the making or shortly to be produced are 'The Light Eternal' by M. V. Merle; 'Mrs. Dane's Defense' by Henry Arthur Jones; 'The Great Divide' by William Vaughn Moody; 'The Woman in the Case' by Clyde Fitch and many others."

"In every production made a prominent star will be featured and supported by the strongest cast obtainable."

A CHICAGO HIT.

Miss Neva Gerber will make her first appearance as leading lady of the "Beauty" Company, in the coming production from the American studios under the title "Life's Struggle."

This picture will be partly allegorical and contain many splendid effects in double and triple exposures in which the American studios excel. Director Cooley has had a specially constructed staircase erected for this production and other careful detail in stage setting has been complied with to make a perfect film.

Stupendous Western Production at Grand

"The Girl of the Golden West," which scored such a big stage success, both as a drama and a grand opera, has been filmed by Jesse L. Lasky in association with David Belasco, and will be seen at the Robinson Grand theater Tuesday. This stupendous production, which is in five parts, portrays life in the West in the late '40's as it really was. The five acts contain numerous thrilling scenes and the play throughout is a heart interest one. The picture is released on the Paramount program.

How can I learn to become a moving picture actress?

There are a number of schools that profess to teach what you desire to learn. However, we have never heard of a graduate of one of these schools achieving fame in the motion picture world. Unless you have a friend with one of the companies, who is willing to help you, our advice is to get the motion picture bee out of your bon-

Connelly Appears as His Satanic Majesty

SCENE FROM "THE DEVIL" FIVE PART MUTUAL MASTERPICTURE PRODUCED BY NEW YORK MOTION PICTURE CORPORATION

"The Devil," one of the latest of the Mutual Masterpictures, has a wonderful cast and is in every way worthy of the time, trouble and money expended by Thomas H. Ince in adapting this play of Franz Molnar's in line with the Mutual's "better motion picture" policy to film purposes. The actors and actresses who impersonate the principal characters in this drama need no introduction to theatrical audiences.

Bessie Barriscale, who assumes the responsibility of making the principal feminine role effective on the screen, is called upon to do some difficult acting, but succeeds admirably in her efforts. Miss Barriscale is new to the movies. Her success on the speaking stage inspired great hopes for her. These hopes she has fully justified by her work in this, her first screen part. In "The Rose of the Rancho" and as Luana in "The Bird of Paradise" she left behind her impressions still pleasantly remembered by theatrical audiences.

As a co-star Miss Barriscale has no less celebrated an actor than Edward Connelly, whose appearance in George Ade's play "Marse Covington" was greeted with enthusiasm by critics the country over. Mr. Connelly plays the part of the Devil. His impersonation of the overlord of hades has a serpent-like quality that fairly leaps, sharp tongued, from the film.

FOUR REEL FEATURE

Written for John Emerson, Late Star in "The Conspiracy."

John Emerson, late star of "The Conspiracy," of which he was author as well as producer, has arrived at the Mutual studios in Los Angeles to appear in a novel four reel feature photoplay. The title for it has not as yet been selected. It was prepared especially for Emerson.

He made his first motion picture appearance in "A Bachelor's Romance" and "The Conspiracy." In these film productions Emerson repeated his success as a splendid actor. Emerson is the fourth prominent legitimate stage star recently to arrive at the Mutual studios to appear in Reliance and Majestic feature photo-dramas.

Chaplin Moustache is The Latest Fad

The latest fad that is spreading all over the United States, is the funny little Chaplin moustache. This moustache is invariably worn by Charles Chaplin in all of his photo comedies. It is one that he originated and is nearly as wide as it is deep.

The lip on either side is shaved so that it covers only about one-half of the mouth. Scores of photoplay enthusiasts have sent their photographs to Essanay to show themselves in the new moustache.
